The Service Set

Jewels to Glitter at Show

By Winzola McLendon

IT WILL BE jewelry fashions on the runway Wednesday when the Women's Club of the National War College meets for a 12 noon luncheon at the EC/Lesley J. McNair Officers' Club. Honor guests will be Mrs. James H. Douglas Jr., wife of the Secretary of

Mrs. McLendon the Air Force, and Mrs. Charles P. Cabell, wife of Gen. Cabell, Deputy Director of Central Intelligence Agency.

The jewelry show will be presented by the Sarah Coventry Co. of New York. Also on the agenda is a musical program by the Air Force "Strolling Strings." Hostesses for the day will be Air Force wives with Mrs. H. S. Judy serving as chairman.

Wives of former Chiefs of Naval Operations will be guests of honor Thursday when the Naval Officers Wives Club stages its February luncheon meeting at the Naval Gun Factory Officers Club. Among the honor guests will be Mrs. Robert B. Carney, Mrs. Harold R. Stark, Mrs. W. M.

Fechteler, Mrs. L. E. Denfeld, and Mrs. Ernest King. Hostesses for the 12 noon luncheon will be wives of the Bureau of Yards and Docks with Mrs. E. J. Peltier as chairman.

AN "AIR WAVES" luncheon is on the calendar for the Engineer Officers Wives Club. The members will gather at 12:30 p. m. on Feb. 11, at the Army Navy Country Club to hear Col. William Heimlich tell about the beginning of American radio behind the Iron Curtain. Col. Heimlich was Chief of Intelligence in Berlin at the end of World War II. He built and headed the operation of Radio-RIAS (radio in the American sector) which was beamed at Eastern Europe and became the principal U. S. propaganda weapon in that area. Later he wrote the plan for Radio Free Europe. Also at the luncheon will be Mrs. Heimlich who was the "Voice of Berlin" for Radio-RIAS.
